Project Description:

Cyrenians has two residential communities. Each community has up to eight residents aged 16-30, who come to live in the communities as a result of being homeless. Volunteers are peer mentors to the community residents. Volunteers and residents live within our community facility. Its hard work and very challenging, but a memorable experience.

Detailed Information:

Work: Volunteers are peer mentors to the community residents and do not substitute the work of paid staff. Volunteers and residents live within our community facility and manage the day-to-day domestic tasks and decisions within the building, which is their home. The process of being involved in decision-making empowers residents and helps to develop their confidence, skills and abilities. We endeavour to create equality between community members (residents and volunteers), but volunteers must note that the young men and women who come to live here come as a result of their need for support. Volunteer support for a resident may include: *Accompanying a resident to the job centre *Helping a residents to cook a meal for the whole community *Acting as a sounding board for a problem or difficult situation *Offering mature and calm guidance

Requirements: yes

Food: Provided

Accommodation: All accommodation and food costs are met by Cyrenians

Pocket money: *Weekly pocket money *Holiday allowance at the three-month stage *Contribution towards travel expenses to the community when you first arrive

Project Description:

The organic farm is located on a 900 meters mountain-plateau near Zug. From there you have a beautiful view on the lake and the Alps. Deer breeding is a part of the activities of the farm. Alternative courses are offered and a festival is organised. The farm welcomes guests for holidays and meditation and offers meals for hiking-tourists. They work regularly with people with special needs, who live in a caravan fleet, do garden work and handicraft. The farmer-family wishes to establish a community all around the year. It is an organic agricultural-, spiritual-, artisan-, community.

Detailed Information:

Work: According to season and your skills, you will do organic gardening, construction work, general farming, welcome visitors in the small restaurant, housework, you will be involved in arts project and maybe do some public relation activities. Moreover, Hirschenhof welcomes an SCI Workcamp with 6 to 8 volunteers every year in July. The LTV can help to organise the workcamp. You will work seven-eight hours five days a week. From time to time, the volunteer will also be asked to help the kids living in the house for different activities.

Requirements: The work can be physically demanding. You also have to be willing to live and work with people in difficult living situations and to share life and work in a community. As the farm is located in a remote and very beautiful surrounding, it helps if you feel comfortable living away from civilisation. As the deer are slaughtered on the farm, you must be OK with the thought of going to see blood and dead deer at some stage of your stay. Basic German needed or strong motivation to learn German.

Food: Provided by Hirschenhof. The food will not necessarily be organic.

Accommodation: Private caravan, shared showers and toilets

Project Description:

We are a community of 60 people on 300 acres of woodlands and fields with a river running through, located about 90 km north of Toronto. We have 6 houses with up to 10 people in each. Recently we acquired a house in the Large city of Barrie, approximately 25 minutes away. We hope to build up an urban day centre there. We are a life sharing community. We live and work together helping each other where needed. Our involvement with each other is like a family, which means from morning to evening. One of the challenges is to be aware of each other's needs and to help each other to meet them.

Detailed Information:

Work: There would be possibilities to do domestic work, cooking, and helping the disabled adults with their daily routine, etc. You may also find yourself working in one of the workshops - weavery, woodshop, and bakery or in the summer food processing. We also have a farm, a garden, maple syrup production, forestry, general land maintenance and a small store.

Requirements: Sensitivity to the needs of others, willingness to offer some physical care for people with special needs, driver's license (not required but it helps). Everyone is expected to support all aspects of our life including the religious and cultural expressions. must speak at least intermediate English

Food: provided

Accommodation: in the houses, usually a private room, shared bath

Pocket money: monthly. You will also get some money for vacation if you are here for a year.

Insurance: provided after 3 months

Fees: none for volunteers from abroad $100.00 to SCI-LTV-USA for US volunteers

Visa: SCI will provide the documents fo Visa

Others: Our life is inspired by Anthroposophy and Christianity as developed by Rudolf Steiner. We have an ongoing adult education program for our entire community plus an orientation program throughout the Fall and Winter season for new volunteers, based on an introduction to Anthroposophy and the philosophy of Camphill. The orientation course starts the beginning of October. Canada has a very extreme and challenging climate. It is wonderful to experience the four very dramatic seasons.

Project Description:

In a large rambling farmhouse, dating back to 1720, about 20 people work daily at being a community. Seven of us have special needs. We believe that the most important thing in life is relationships. Everything else is how we give substance, value, and meaning to those relationships. "Everyone is perfect in their essential being and everyone is handicapped in bringing that perfect essence to expression."

Detailed Information:

Work: Helping with the needs of others and work around the house. Helping with the needs of others can be giving someone a ride to a therapy or to work, helping someone take a bath, learn to write or make a phone call, doing their laundry or attending a play or concert. Our social awareness extends beyond the house, to neighbors, friends, and community needs, so we are active in recycling, hospice work, community clean ups, etc. Working around the house can be repairs, cleaning, garden work, cooking, building, making a compost bin or organisational or administrative work. We are very flexible. Our aim is to create a network of strengths to support our various weaknesses so that as a group we can achieve a productivity we can all enjoy.

Requirements: openness, willingness to join in, driver's license must speak at least intermediate English Police background check required
